IS THIS THEIR ARGUMENT?

The editor of this paper has read and heard many a potent political argument, but all honors in this pungent field are hereby awarded to Henry W. Anderson, leading Republican of Virginia.

Mr. Anderson has just returned from the Cleveland convention of his party. He is overcome with fire and enthusiasm. He has sat at the feet of the wizards of the G.O.P.

He predicts that Virginia is a doubtful state in this fall's presidential election. AND HERE IS HIS ARGUMENT, quoted:

"Virginians will appreciate a man who knows that two and two make four."

Well, that's simply unanswerable. That's an all time record for political argument. All we can say in reply to Mr. Anderson is that he will have to do much better than that if he expects Virginia to be interested in the ticket of his party this fall.

THANKS FOR THE BOOST

A prominent citizen from a nearby town, almost as large as Appomattox, stopped us [on] a street corner here last Friday and said:

"My, my, I've been standing here fifteen minutes looking, and cars and people have been rushing by like 'Appomatox was a big city.' Your town reealy looks properous."

Thanks for the boost. We have been noticing it too.

INDIFFERENCE

Perhaps the greatest fault that can be found with any small town is that of utter indifference on the part of many of its citizens. So many of them appear to care nothing at all for what happens to the town. There is a certain smugness and self-complacency that often arises, and when it does it injures the town no end.

When townspeople begin to lose interest in community affairs, in civic responsibilities, the town begins to degenerate.

TRUE DEMOCRACY

The true "bigness" of the Democratic party in the Old Dominion was revealed when an ovation was given the course pursued by senators Glass and Byrd in regard to many New Deal measures, yet commending the New Deal. Unbridled representatives are the ground work of true Democracy. Rubber stamp 'Yes men' are poor representatives.

Colored DOTS

By R. Q. Lawing

Childrens' day was observed last Sunday in a number of the rural churches with splendidly given programs and exercises.

Last Wednesday morning at 8 o-clock the special five week summer school under the direction of Mrs. Treda Hamlet opened with an enrollment of 12. The summer school is a splendid opportunity for those children who failed during the past session. The school is open to all who wish to attend.

How Cardui Helps Women To Build Up

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. . . . Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

FLOOD NAMED DELEGATE

Joel W. Flood, of Appomattox, was named a delegate to the national Democratic convention by the state convention Tuesday. Four delegates with a half vote each from the fourt district were named.

Bent Creek

Beent Creek, June 17.— Cutting wheat is now the order of the day. Haven't heard much comment as to what farmers think yield will be.

The bonus money coming to the veterans was a matter of great interest here. It's a pitty it couldn't be set aside for old age. This life is going too fast to think of old age and death, but they are coming just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thornhill and boys, of Roanoke, visited home people here Sunday.

Miss Mary Eubank, who had been visiting in the home of Mrs. J. R. Marks, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Eunice Cumby, who has been employed at Sweet Briar College is home for the summer.

Miss Olivia Harris has accepted a position in Lynchburg.

Edson Cumby and John B. Harris from the CCC are spending this week with home people.

Mrs. C. W. Phelps is visiting in the home of her nephew, George W. Dixon, near Appomatox.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Childers, Mrs H. C. Ledbetter and Mrs C. D. McCormick and daughter, Frances, motored to Lynchburg Saturday.

Notice: If you want news items published from Bent Creek, send them to the post office not later than Tuesday morning. I'll be glad to send them in.

JOIN THE "AMERICAN" PARTY

MILLIONS of Americans feel the same as John P. Citizen. They love their country and are interested in politics. But they all feel there are important issues in private life, too. And one of the most important items is: "What gasoline will give me most for my money?" More than a million Americans have decided this question by casting their votes in favor of American Oil Company products. ★★★ There's Amoco-Gas —the original special motor fuel that holds more official A.A.A. world's records than any other gas or motor fuel.★★★ In the "regular" party, there's Orange American Gas with its pure petroleum base—a clean-burning regular.
